

Amanda Renee Wertheimer

May 22, 1979 - December 6, 2019

Wertheimer, Amanda Renee - age 40, of Knoxville, passed away on Friday, December 6, 2019. Amanda was born and raised in Knoxville and graduated from the Christian Academy of Knoxville in 1997. She earned her bachelors degree from the University of Tennessee and enjoyed a successful career as a medical transcriptionist. To know Amanda was to love her, she was one of the most loving supportive people you could ever meet. She was always quick to put others first and be there whenever she was needed. Amanda loved working in the children's ministry at Two Rivers Church and had recently taken to sharing her angelic voice with the congregation as part of the worship team. In her free time she enjoyed crocheting and all things Disney. In 2006 she married her best friend, Drew, and several years later their family expanded to include a son and two daughters. Amanda was an excellent wife and mother who loved her husband and children fiercely. Amanda was preceded in death by her father, Timothy Travis. She is survived by her husband, Drew Wertheimer; children, Aidan, Abigail, and Reagan; mother, Janice Travis; brothers, James Travis and Tim Travis, Jr.; uncle, Barney Travis; aunt, Peg Heater; several nephews and a niece. The family will receive friends on Monday from 11:00-12:00pm at Rose Mortuary Mann Heritage Chapel with the funeral to immediately follow at 12:00. Family and friends will then travel in procession to Highland Memorial Cemetery for the interment. Online condolences may be made at www.rosemortuary.com.

Comments

“ I remember Amanda as a sweet student, full of humility, who loved her classmates and always wanted to do the right thing. I am so sorry that her family will no longer have her with them day by day, but I know her influence in their lives will live on.

“ Amanda was my best friend throughout my whole time at CAK. We spent so many days together. She shared so much with me and invited me to be a part of so many fun times. She was a faithful friend, loyal always, dedicated to the things she loved, and especially to the people that she loved. Just a few memories to share. Amanda introduced me to the TV shows Wings (which we would watch over and over) and Friends. We obsessed over SeaQuest together, and even wrote a script and sent it in. We swore they used some of our ideas on the next season!! We would hang out and listen to Gloria Estefan and dream about the future. And then we moved on from high school and got involved in our own lives, but we were both blessed with beautiful families. I had only seen her a few times over the last 10 years, but every time was filled with the joys of sharing about love, kids, and life. Amanda, you will be so missed. Your light will shine on here in our hearts. With love, Carrie Dhanarajan
