“ To Helen's Grandsons and Great Grandchildren: All we can say is WOW! Helen and Ellen made a great impact on Knoxville Homeless. A legacy that will never be forgotten. Just two little women from Abbieville, NC. What if we all did our little part to impact our little space in the world?

Matthew 5: 13 - 16 “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet. “You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.”

Every time we read: Matthew 25: 34 -35, 40 I will think of both Helen and Ellen: "Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in." “The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.”

It was honored to met all of you.

“ We send our sincerest condolences to the extended Ashe family. Helen was such a caring, kind and special person. Volunteering at the Love Kitchen with Helen and Ellen during the 2012-1015 period was one of my most fulfilling life experiences. They always had a happy greeting to everyone, enjoyed a good laugh, and taught us about the importance of family and helping those who are less fortunate. The Ashe family, her many friends and the city of Knoxville should always be proud of her selfless contributions to the community. Always smiling, kind and considerate, we will all miss her.

“ When I was a student at UT studying Nutrition and Food Systems Administration I worked several times with Miss Helen and her sister Miss Ellen. They were both so sweet and kind to me. The world has lost another remarkable lady.

“ Ms. Helen has gained her wings. She is now reunited with sister Ellen. What a beautiful pair of ladies. This earth will miss the two of them; however, Heaven is rejoicing. Praying for the family. My sincere sympathy is extended.
