“ I've only met Eric A Few Times And Had The Honor Of Sharing The Stage With Him As well.. But In The Short Time I've Known Him I Can Say This. This Is Such A Loss But I Know He's In Heaven Smiling Down On Us All.. May He Rest in peace with the angels..

“ Eric visited us several times in Middle TN and I always enjoyed his visits. I remember one Thanksgiving we had a new family member, a rowdy Chihuahua. Eric picked up the puppy and for the remainder of the afternoon, the tiny puppy snuggled on Eric's broad shoulder. Eric was a peaceful, calm person with a kind heart. My thoughts and prayers are with the Redheffer family during this difficult time.

“ Eric was talented, thoughtful, practical, and a great chef, displaying his culinary skills at a cookout he hosted one blustery April day at Concord park. Another time he presented us with a delightful handcrafted cheese ball on an acrylic cutting board we still use to this day. We extend our deepest condolences to the Redheffer family at this sad time. -- Carol & Bob Rhinehart

“ I will always remember being friends with Eric from my childhood on! He was so smart, strong and funny! Even though he wanted me to hide from passing traffic when we played in the yard, I never lost my love for him. We had so much fun on family vacations to Florida, Michigan, and Tennessee! I really appreciate knowing him and value what he added to my life. God bless all of you, Carole, Jim, and Nicklas. Eric was a bright star who will be missed. Kitty Corson Knight

“ I was checking for Eric as I was curious as to what had happened in his life and was very saddened to come across this tribute wall. I met Eric High School and we were friends for those years after which we completely lost contact. Eric was a great athlete and quite a good student. The man could hit a golfball unbelievably long, and was quite good at every sport I saw him in. He was fun loving and a bit wild and crazy too. Academically, I think he could have done whatever he wanted. My condolences to your family and peace to you Eric.

“ I thought I would add a little more about Eric. We had as well as going to high school together had also caddied together. This job ended up being one of those you remember as being a fun job. We would often go out on Mondays for free caddy golf day and play from first light until dark, about 45 holes. We also worked together for a short time at a fruit market, where Eric's nick name was Bam-Bam (watch the Flintstones for this reference). Eric as I recall was also Captain of our high school golf team and placed in States. We also had some adventures in Canada and MSU. I doubt anyone will read further on this but if you do this might give you some extra memories of Eric. Sincerely Mark Faulkner
