“ Dear Maurice, Karen, and family, I wish Paul and I could have been there with you to celebrate a life well lived by your mom, Jessie. She was my beloved great aunt and she was loved by all her nephews and nieces and greats. I remember talking with her on her porch when she was recovering from one of her many health issues, and she said, "OK Lord what's next?" This was not in a questioning bitter way, but in a way that was completely trusting Him with her life and life circumstances. She was a wonderful godly mentor to me; and she and Uncle Jack were the most gracious and hospitable couple you could ever hope to meet. I hope and pray that Father of Mercy and the God of all comfort will give you comfort and peace at your mom's passing. I am so thankful that we can celebrate her life and that she is with her Savior and Lord Jesus and Uncle Jack and other loved ones in Heaven. "Precious in the sight of The Lord is the death of His saints." Psalms 116:15 ~ Mary Phyllis, great niece

“ As we make our journey through this life, death is our final battle. Whenever I am troubled, & lost in deep despair, I bundle all my troubles up & go to God in prayer.... I tell him I am heartsick & lost & lonely, too, That my mind is deeply burdened & I don't know what to do... But I know he loves me & I humbly ask if in his love he'll calm my heart, for me...& then I just keep quiet & think, only thoughts of peace & if I abide in stillness my restless murmurings cease. (Ps.34:18
