

Marilyn Lois (Axen) White

March 13, 2019

Marilyn Lois (Axen) White passed away on Wednesday, March 13, 2019. She was preceded in death by parents: Carl Oscar Axen and Muriel Ruth (Salter) Axen, husband William F. White, son William Randall White, and grandchild April Michelle. She is survived by daughter Terri White Craze (Danny Craze), son Brian White (Debbie Countiss), grandsons Jon-Michael Craze (Ally Wagner), Jordan Craze, and brother Charles Axen. Marilyn met her southern husband in her hometown of Chicago. They were eating at the same restaurant while "Bill" was on duty with the USAF. They dated long distance for six months and married in Chattanooga. After many moves with the service and business, they moved to Knoxville in 1963 with their three children.

They loved to play golf, take trips, celebrate with friends, and lived part-time in Wolf Laurel, NC in retirement. Marilyn's family will receive friends from 4:00 pm – 6:00 pm Sunday March 17th at Rose Mortuary Mann Heritage Chapel. Family and friends will gather at Edgewood Cemetery on Monday March 18th for an 11am Graveside service. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Marilyn's honor to a charity of your choice.

“ I'm heartbroken to hear of Marilyn's passing. She lived next door to my Mom in Deane Hill. I so enjoyed talking with her as she told of her family and the beach. She was just the sweetest lady and I will miss her so much. I'm so sorry for your loss and will pray for your family.

“ We loved going to the beach with Aunt Marilyn. She and Mom would sit in the beach with iodine and baby oil on to tan for hours on end. We always looked forward to seeing her and Uncle Billy when they would come to eastern North Carolina. I am not 100% sure she liked our BBQ though. LOL rest in peace. We love you!
