“ Mr. Paul was a neighbor of ours for years. He and Ms. Ruth were wonderful neighbors. They always had the best looking yard in our neighborhood. We were blessed to have known him and our thoughts and prayers are with Ms. Ruth during this time of her loss.

“ I will miss Mr Summers so much. He has definitely left an imprint on our Church Family at Broadway Baptist Church. What a blessing in his Christian legacy he has left for those that follow behind. I look forward to seeing him again in glory.

“ Paul exemplified all of the values of a great man. He was kind, loyal, a man who lived out his faith through actions, and showed integrity in all that he did. His and Ruth's marriage was such an example of what it means to love and cherish one another, and their commitment to friends, family and their church family remains a great example. Thinking of you, Ruth, and praying for you in the days ahead. Thankful that Paul is free from all earthly struggles as he was welcomed into his heavenly home.
