“ Sandy, my Cousin was an outstanding person. She is my Dad's Sisters Daughter. Her husband Bob died many years ago. She will be missed. God rest her soul in Heaven.

“ I shall miss my friend everyday. Elvis, George Strait and Jon Bon Vovi will always remind me of Sandy, she loved music. Fulton High School radio station was our station. I could always count on Sandy to know who sang what back in the day. Just ask "Mr. Lee", one of Sandy's many long standing clients. When he came in to the office she would always sing, "Mr. Lee Mr. Lee", The Bobbettes 1957. I shall miss my friend everyday.

“ I live next door to Sandy and also her husband Bob. They were such sweet people. I usually saw Sandy come home from work and stop to get her mail. We usually just yelled back and forth to each other but other times we would talk or I would call her. I'm going to miss her so much. She was always so sweet!! She will be missed by all of us that were her neighbors in Temple Acres.
